Office of Diversity Affairs

Caring adults making an EMPCC
Ethnic Minority Parent Community Council

You are cordially invited to attend the first meeting of EMPCC for the 2011/2012 school year

What is EMPCC? We are a parent and community advisory council to the Puyallup School District Superintendent and The Office of Diversity Affairs. We meet monthly to engage in a two-way conversation, dialogue and sharing with the purpose of strengthening the home school partnership to insure ALL students meet and exceed the district goals to reach their maximum potential.

Welcome:

Gerald Denman

Executive Director of Diversity Affairs

Topic:

“Strengthening Our Partnership...Come hear how the Puyallup School District is continuing its commitment and efforts to Strengthen Our Partnership as we move forward to continue our work of becoming a more culturally competent learning community.”

WHEN: Wednesday, October 12, 2011

WHERE: *Education Service Center
302 2nd Street SE
Puyallup, WA 98372*
