Step Team

The team steps out onto the stage to perform at the MLK Assembly. "Joining step team showed me I can do anything if I put my all into it," said Shelley Castro.

The audience cheers as the family stomps it out. "The team was like no other," said captain Yvonne Groves. "We're not even a step team anymore, we are a step family."

"Step team made my senior year completely worthwhile and I am very proud to graduate from my school knowing that the people I have left will continue our legacy as a very talented team." -Kache Waters
